Sparks Campus Honors Recipients

Wallace Community College recognized its most outstanding students at separate Honors Day convocations at the Wallace Campus in Dothan, April 17, and the Sparks Campus in Eufaula, April 19. Tim Wilder, superintendent, Dothan City Schools, gave the keynote address at the Wallace Campus event. Charles Schaeffer, area president, BankTrust, addressed the Sparks Campus audience.
The College recognized its most outstanding students in academic and technical programs, as well as those who have earned scholarships and participated in leadership roles on campus and in the community.

WCC President Linda C. Young presented the highest individual honor, The President’s Award, to Angel Sheffield, Midland City, Ala. Sheffield is graduating from WCC with a 4.0 average and has been on the President’s List for four consecutive semesters. She earned the Outstanding Student Recognition for Economics in 2011 and is listed in the Who’s Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges in 2011. She has also won two annual scholarships from the Alabama Onsite Wastewater Association. Sheffield is involved in student organizations as a member of the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society as vice president of scholarship and the Sigma Kappa Delta English Honor Society. She has worked part-time as a math tutor for the College, provides foster care for lost or abandoned animals through Independent Dog Rescue, and helps several family members who need assistance with everyday activities. She has been accepted in the Pre-Pharmacy program at Auburn University for fall semester 2012 and will apply next year for the Doctor of Pharmacy program at the Harrison School of Pharmacy at Auburn University.
