

Students will...

- Learn to code to the highest specificity
- Learn how operative reports are coded as well as what is included in a procedure
- Learn to distinguish between covered and noncovered services
- Learn about modifiers and how they affect reimbursement
- Learn to answer physicians' questions
- Learn to understand language in medical checkout documents
- Learn to diagnose medical necessity
- Learn when to code and when not to code
- Practice coding using REAL operative reports
- Have open discussions during each class for questions/reviews
- Have a world of resources available through the American Academy of Professional Coders
- Learn many valuable tips on coding

Call us today to get started on your new career path.

334.556.2414 or
1.800.543.2426, ext. 2414

www.wallace.edu

Wallace Community College
Center for Economic & Workforce Development
5565 Montgomery Highway
Dothan, AL 36303

Your Future. Our Focus.

Professional Medical Coding

WALLACE
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

About the Professional Medical Coding Program...

A professional medical coder is responsible for reviewing medical records while identifying and translating medical procedures into proper diagnostic codes.

What career choices are available?

After completion of this course, you will be qualified to work as a professional coder in places like:

- Hospitals
- Insurance Companies
- Doctors' Offices
- Medical Billing Companies
- Nursing Homes
- Medical Group Practices
- Home Health Agencies
- Clinics

Wallace Community College affords equal opportunity to all employees and applicants for admission or employment regardless of race, gender, religion, national origin, age, or disability. WCC will make reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities.

WCC Program Specifics

- Classes meet Tuesdays from 5:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., at the Center for Economic and Workforce Development located at 5565 Montgomery Highway in Dothan, Alabama.
- After completion of the course, you will be prepared for an entry-level position completing medical coding duties in any number of medical office settings.

Prerequisites

- 1 High School Diploma or GED
- 2 Must provide proof of completion of Medical Terminology and completion of Human Anatomy Courses

Fees:

- $1,400 (includes tuition, textbooks, certification exam fee, and a one-year membership in the American Academy of Professional Coders (AAPC).
- Registration is not complete until the registration form and entire course fee are received.
- Class size is limited.
- WIA approved

Registration Form Professional Medical Coding

SS#:* _____

Name: _____

Address: _____

City/State/ZIP: _____

Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Male* _____ Female* _____ Race* _____ D.O.B. _____

Place of Employment: _____

Payment Method:

_____ Check (make payable to WCC)

_____ Visa/MasterCard _____ Cash

_____ Visa/MC Acct. # _____ Exp. _____ CVV# _____

Cardholder: _____

Mail to

Center for Economic & Workforce Development
ATTN: Professional Medical Coding
5565 Montgomery Hwy.
Dothan, AL 36303

*For reporting/registration purposes only.